

Ice Show Costume Guidelines

2023

- Costumes should be modest and conservative. Costumes should not be perceived suggestive or provocative.
 - No wide open back or low neck lines that are revealing or provocative
 - No hanging pants off of boys bottoms
 - Body needs to be covered on the top and bottom (no shirtless acts for boys)
 - No dressing in any way that is offensive to a minority group or something like that - can't cross dress etc.
 - Costume length needs to be modest (no bikini or crop tops, no super short shorts, no skirts that don't cover the bottom to begin with, etc.)
 - No completely strapless or complete off the shoulders tops
 - No bra straps showing- clear straps suggested
 - Shorts or skating briefs must be worn underneath skirts that don't have a bottom attached
 - No see through tops unless there is another shirt or full undergarment underneath
 - No two piece costumes or illusion of 2 pieces – unless they fully fit together and stomach is not and will not show upon movement
 - No swimsuits (upon approval a skirt maybe added to bring into compliance)
- No offensive or suggestive language or pictures on any attire or props
- Costume choices need to be coordinated to go together within your group.
- Skaters need to work together on costume choice & each skater pays for their own costume.
- Skaters are encouraged to choose outfits that are congruent with the theme of the show or their particular song if possible. This doesn't have to be elaborate-- costumes could be as simple as a cute dress or an inexpensive fun outfit).
- Don't be afraid to add color. It creates a vibrant show!
- Accessories are a great way to jazz up a costume. (Scrunchies, bows, scarves, ribbons, gloves, hats, etc. can add finishing touches.)
- All costumes are subject to review and pre-approval by the ice show committee.
- Have FUN!!! Costumes complete the routine. Find something you enjoy that appeals to both you and the audience.

* All costumes MUST be reviewed and pre-approval by the ice show committee BEFORE ordering*

We reserve the right to deny a costume if it does NOT meet the guidelines listed above
